

Feel trapped? Need help?
 Hungry? Need clothes?
 Addicted? Homeless? Tired?
 Unemployed? Need to start over again?

Ready for Change?

If you said yes to any of these questions,
 find out if the Whosoever Gospel Mission's
New Life Program
 is right for you.

Take care of your physical needs:

- Good food - 3 meals a day (you can come back for seconds!), plus snacks
- Clothing & shoes (includes coat)
- Transitional housing - a clean bed with pillow, sheets and blanket in your own personal living space
- Clean bathrooms with private shower stalls
- Tutoring & classes - reading, writing, math, life skills, GED prep, computer class
- Computer & Internet Access
- Resume preparation
- Job Search Help - carfare, interview clothes, writing a resume - we'll do what it takes to help you get a job.
- Carfare to appointments

Come in and find everything you need to get back on your feet.

It's ALL

FREE

And take care of your soul:

- Chapel & Bible Study - Be renewed and feed your soul. Grow closer to God and learn of His love and grace. Learn how to study the Bible for yourself.
- Addiction Recovery - you don't have to be addicted to enter the New Life Program, but we can help you if you are. Either way, work on positive ways to handle life's stress and challenges
- Relationships - build friendships with staff and fellow-residents; reconnect with family; be there for your kids
